

Mike Sangiacomo is a partner at Sangiacomo Family Vineyards, located in Sonoma, California where his family has farmed since 1927. Growing up on the ranch, he has lived and breathed agriculture from the day he was born. As a third generation partner, he oversees with his brother Steve all agricultural, strategic and operational aspects of the business. Together they manage over 1600 acres of Sonoma County vineyards in Sonoma Coast, Petaluma Gap, Sonoma Valley and Carneros appellations, as well as grape sales to more than 70 premium wineries, many of whom vineyard-designate their wines with the Sangiacomo name. Mike is a board member and chair of the California Sustainable Winegrowing Alliance; a Commissioner of the Fiscal Oversight Commission of the Sonoma County Agricultural and Open Space District; and a board member of the Sonoma Valley Mentoring Alliance. He is a former board member of the California Association of Winegrowers and the Sonoma Valley Vintners and Growers Association. He lives in Sonoma with his wife, Whitney, and their children, Joe Julia, and Robby. When not in the vineyards or spending time with his family, he enjoys hiking and playing golf.
